ABOUT US

Gujarat Travel Times is a professional magazine dedicated to empowering Gujarat's travel agents with the latest updates, insights, and opportunities from the world of travel and tourism. Our goal is to keep the travel community informed, inspired, and connected with developments not only within Gujarat, but across India and around the globe.

Through news, features, and industry analysis, we provide valuable information that helps travel agents stay ahead in a fast-changing market. From aviation updates and hospitality trends to destination highlights and government policies, Gujarat Travel Times delivers content that matters to the people who shape the travel industry.
